

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The scholarship's purpose is to provide financial assistance to a qualified graduating high school Senior while attending college. The applicant, parent, or grandparent must be a Kansas Blue Cross Blue Shield Credit Union member. Any university, college or community college is an acceptable institution for the purpose of this scholarship. This is a one time only award and its intended use is for tuition, books, fees, room and board.

For the current year the amount will be:

$1,000.00

Applicants must demonstrate leadership and responsibility through school and community activities, be recommended by a teacher/counselor, and have a mid-term grade point average of 3.0 or higher.

Selection will be made by an independent committee appointed by Kansas Blue Cross Blue Shield Credit Union. Family members of the Selection Committee are not eligible for the award. The Committee reserves the right to award only one or none of the proposed scholarships if adequate criteria have not been attained.

Applications and supporting documents must be received no later than March 27, 2020. Awards shall be payable approximately April 21, 2020. All applicants will be notified of the Committee's actions and final decision.

Individuals interested in applying should complete the enclosed forms and send them, together with supporting documents:
